1. The Chairman of the Board shall act as the Chair of the meeting. The Chair will have sole authority to preside over the meeting and make any and all determinations with respect to the conduct of the meeting and compliance with these Rules of Conduct and Procedures. The Chair shall also have sole authority to create such additional rules and procedures and to waive full or partial compliance with any rule or procedure as the Chair shall reasonably determine. Any action taken by the Chair shall be final, conclusive and binding on all persons.
2. The Agenda indicates the order in which matters will be presented at the meeting. When an item on the Agenda is before the meeting for consideration, discussion should be confined to that item.
3. The only business to be conducted at the meeting are the matters set forth in the Notice of 2022 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and Proxy Statement dated March 31, 2022.
4. Only stockholders of record as of March 15, 2022 or their proxy holders may attend this meeting and vote and submit questions at the virtual meeting. To vote or submit questions, please login as a stockholder by entering the control number you received with your proxy materials. If you have voted your shares prior to the start of the Annual Meeting, your vote has been received by the Company's inspector of elections and there is no need to vote those shares during the Annual Meeting unless you wish to revoke or change your vote. If you wish to vote, you may do so while the polls are open by following the instructions on the meeting website. Polls will be open from the beginning of the meeting until the announcement that the polls are closed, and we encourage you to vote as early as possible.

6. Questions from multiple stockholders on the same topic or that are otherwise related may be grouped, summarized, and answered together. So that we can address as many questions from as many different stockholders as possible, no stockholder may ask more than two questions.
7. The views and comments of all stockholders are welcome. However, the purpose of the meeting will be observed and the Chair or Secretary will stop discussions or will not address questions that are:
  - a. not pertinent to meeting matters or the business of the Company;
  - b. related to material non-public information of the Company;
  - c. related to personal grievances;
  - d. derogatory references to individuals or that are otherwise in bad taste;
  - e. repetitious of statements made by another stockholder;
  - f. related to pending or threatened litigation; or
  - g. related to personal matters such as layoff, termination, demotion, retirement or requests for employment.
8. In the event of disorder, technical malfunction, or other significant problem that disrupts the meeting, the Chair may adjourn, recess or expedite the meeting or take such other action that the Chair determines is appropriate in light of the circumstances. In this situation, we will post information regarding the date, time and place of the reconvened meeting on our Investors website at www.bloomenergy.com. These rules of conduct will apply at any reconvened meeting.
9. A replay of the meeting will be available on our website for one year from the date of the meeting. Unauthorized recording of the meeting is prohibited.
10. If there are any matters of individual concern to a stockholder and not of general concern to all stockholders, such matters may be raised separately after the Annual Meeting by contacting Investor Relations through our website.
11. The Annual Meeting is not to be used as a forum to present general or personal economic, political or other views that are not directly related to the business of Bloom Energy.

The violation of any of these rules will be considered cause for expulsion from the virtual meeting.
