

ADAMIS PHARMACEUTICALS CORPORATION

2020 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

RULES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE CONDUCT OF ANNUAL MEETING

Welcome to the 2020 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Adamis Pharmaceuticals Corporation. In the interest of an orderly meeting, we require that you honor the following rules of conduct:

1. Unless the Chair of the meeting determines otherwise, the business of the meeting follow the order as set forth in the Agenda. When an item on the Agenda is before the meeting for consideration, discussion should be confined to that item.
2. You need not vote at this meeting if you have already voted by proxy. However, if you wish to change your vote, or if you have not voted, please log in as a stockholder by entering the control number you received with your proxy materials using the instructions provided in the proxy materials and by following the instructions on the meeting website.
3. If you have voted your shares prior to the start of the meeting, your vote has been received by the company's inspector of elections, and you do not need to vote those shares during the meeting.
4. The only business matters to be conducted at the meeting are the matters set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and 2020 Proxy Statement dated July 10, 2020. Only those nominations and proposals that have been submitted in accordance with the proxy rules and our bylaws and are presented properly before the meeting will be voted upon.
5. Only stockholders of record as of the close of business on June 23, 2020, the record date, or their duly authorized proxies, are entitled to submit questions and vote at the meeting. Stockholders may vote until the polls close. The polls will close after the last proxy proposal is presented.
6. If a stockholder has a question or remark about one of the proposals, such question or remark may be submitted in the field provided in the virtual meeting website portal. We will endeavor to answer relevant questions before the polls close for voting.
7. An opportunity will be provided to present questions during the question and answer session following the formal business of the meeting. In order to give as many stockholders as possible the opportunity to ask questions, we ask that you please limit yourself to no more than two questions. Up to two minutes will be allocated to read each question. Stockholder questions and remarks should be confined to matters properly before the meeting. If multiple questions are submitted on the same topic, we will summarize and respond collectively. If a question violates these rules of conduct, it will not be answered. Appropriate questions are welcome. However, the meeting is not to be used as a forum for general economic, political or other views that are not directly related to the business of the company. We do not intend to address any questions that are, among other things: irrelevant to the business of the company or to the business of the annual meeting; related to material non-public information of the company; related to pending or threatened litigation; related to personal grievances; are repetitious or have already been made by other persons; derogatory references to individuals or that are otherwise in bad taste; in furtherance of a stockholder's personal or business interests; or out of order or not otherwise suitable for the conduct of the annual meeting as determined by the Chief Executive Officer or Secretary of the meeting in their reasonable judgment.

8. Recording of the annual meeting is prohibited. A webcast playback will be available at www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/ADMP2020 approximately 24 hours after the completion of the meeting.
9. In the event of a technical malfunction or other disruption, the Chair of the meeting may adjourn, recess or expedite the meeting or take such other action that the Chair determines is appropriate in light of the circumstances.
