

Safe Harbor Statement

The matters discussed at the 2022 Annual Meeting (the “Meeting”) of Shareholders of Steelcase Inc. (the “Company”), including any replay of the Meeting, may include statements about the Company’s business outlook and other forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements generally are accompanied by words such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “forecast,” “intend,” “may,” “possible,” “potential,” “predict,” “project,” “target” or other similar words, phrases or expressions.

Forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements and vary from the Company’s expectations because of factors such as, but not limited to, competitive and general economic conditions domestically and internationally; acts of terrorism, war, governmental action, natural disasters, pandemics and other Force Majeure events; cyberattacks; the COVID-19 pandemic and the actions taken by various governments and third parties to combat the pandemic; changes in the legal and regulatory environment; changes in raw material, commodity and other input costs; currency fluctuations; changes in customer demand; and the other risks and contingencies detailed in the Company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and its other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The statements made at the Meeting are provided as of July 13, 2022 and may be superseded by information disclosed in the Company’s subsequent public statements or filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company undertakes no obligation to update, amend, or clarify forward-looking statements made during the Meeting, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
