RULES OF CONDUCT AND PROCEDURE

Welcome to the 2024 Special Meeting of Stockholders of ContextLogic Inc. (the “Company,” “ContextLogic” or “we”). To allow for an organized, informative, and fair Special Meeting, we ask for your cooperation with the following rules of conduct and procedure.

1. Agenda. The Special Meeting will be conducted according to the Agenda posted on the Special Meeting portal.
2. Voting.
 - Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 7, 2024, or their duly authorized proxies, are entitled to vote.
 - If you have not yet previously voted, you may vote during the meeting while the polls are open by clicking on the voting button on the web portal and following the prompts.
 - If you have already voted by telephone, Internet, or mail, your vote has been received and tallied by the Company’s inspector of votes and you will not need to vote at the meeting. However, if you wish to change your vote, you may vote again during the meeting while the polls are open by clicking on the voting button on the web portal and following the prompts.
3. Stockholder Questions.
 - There will not be a Q&A session during the Special Meeting. However, stockholders may individually raise any questions or concerns after the meeting by contacting Investor Relations at ir@wish.com.

4. Recording of the Meeting. Recording of the Special Meeting is prohibited.

5. Forward Looking Statements. During the meeting, we may make forward-looking statements which are subject to changing risks and uncertainties, and may refer to non-GAAP financial measures. For detailed information on potential risks that might lead to actual results that differ from any forward-looking statements made during the meeting, please see ContextLogic's Form 10-K and the definitive proxy statement for the Special Meeting dated March 15, 2024, both of which are available at www.sec.gov. For a reconciliation of non-GAAP financial references to GAAP financial measures, please see ContextLogic's Quarterly Earnings Release filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission at www.sec.gov.

Thank you for your cooperation and for joining the Company at the 2024 Special Meeting of Stockholders.
