JOHN DEERE

RULES OF CONDUCT FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING

Welcome to the 2025 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”) of Deere & Company (the “Company”), which is being conducted virtually. In the interest of a productive and orderly meeting, we ask for our shareholders’ cooperation in observing the following rules and procedures:

1. Pursuant to the Company’s bylaws, the Chairman shall preside over the Annual Meeting and may make any and all determinations with respect to the rules of conduct and procedure for the Annual Meeting. The Chairman shall have the sole discretion to rule on procedures and on all other matters incident to the conduct of the Annual Meeting. Any action taken by the Chairman with respect to the Annual Meeting will be final and binding on all persons.
2. The only business matters to be conducted at the Meeting are matters set forth in the Notice of 2025 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and Proxy Statement dated January 10, 2025.
3. Only shareholders as of the close of business on December 30, 2024, the record date, are entitled to participate in, vote, or ask questions at the Annual Meeting. Guest access is available to view the Annual Meeting without a 16-digit control number, but guests may not participate in, vote, or ask questions at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders are encouraged to vote in advance of the meeting, but shareholders may change their vote or revoke a proxy by voting online during the Annual Meeting until the polls close. The polls will close when indicated during the Annual Meeting.

Please Note: Shareholders who voted prior to the start of the Annual Meeting do not need to vote again during the Annual Meeting, unless they wish to revoke their proxy or change their vote.

4. During the presentation of shareholder proposals, each shareholder proponent will be limited to three minutes to present their proposal. The presenter should restrict their comments to the subject matter of the shareholder proposal being presented. If a shareholder proposal contained in the Proxy Statement is not presented at the Annual Meeting by the shareholder proponent or an authorized representative, the proposal will not be considered or submitted for vote.
5. Following adjournment of the business portion of the Annual Meeting, we will address appropriate general questions from shareholders regarding the Company. Questions are welcome from all shareholders. Out of fairness and respect to all shareholders attending the Annual Meeting, the Company does not intend to address any questions that are, among other things:
 - not pertinent to the business of the Company or to the business of the Annual Meeting;
 - related to personal grievances or individual personnel matters;
 - derogatory to individuals or that are otherwise in bad taste;

- related to pending or threatened litigation;
- in furtherance of the shareholder's personal or business interests and not otherwise a matter of interest to shareholders generally; or
- out of order or not otherwise suitable for the conduct of the Annual Meeting as determined by the Chairman in his reasonable judgment.

Shareholders who wish to submit a question during the Annual Meeting, after logging into the virtual meeting platform with a 16-digit control number, may type a question into the "Ask a Question" field and click "Submit." Please be aware that:

- questions relevant to meeting matters will be answered during the Annual Meeting, subject to time constraints;
 - questions or comments that are substantially similar may be grouped and answered together to avoid repetition; and
 - questions relevant to meeting matters that we do not have time to address during the meeting will be answered within a week of the meeting by correspondence with the shareholder.
6. In the event of disorder, technical malfunction, or other significant problem that disrupts the meeting, the Chairman may adjourn, recess, or expedite the Annual Meeting or take such other action that the Chairman determines is appropriate given the circumstances. Accordingly, shareholders planning to vote during the Annual Meeting should be prepared to vote as soon as the polls open.
 7. Recording the Annual Meeting is prohibited. A replay of the webcast will be available on the Company's website at www.deere.com/stock following the close of the Annual Meeting.
 8. Voting results announced at the meeting by the Inspectors of Voting are preliminary. Voting results will be filed in a Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission after the votes are final.

If shareholders have difficulty accessing the Annual Meeting, please follow the instructions on the Annual Meeting website. Technicians will be available to assist.

We appreciate our shareholders' participation. Fellow shareholders will appreciate each other's courtesy in adhering to the Rules of Conduct. Participants who fail to comply may be excluded from the Annual Meeting at the Chairman's discretion.

The Company reserves the right to amend the Rules of Conduct from time to time.
