Enzo Biochem, Inc.
Special Meeting of Shareholders

RULES OF CONDUCT

Welcome to the Special Meeting of Shareholders (the "Special Meeting") of Enzo Biochem, Inc. (the "Company"). In the interest of providing a fair, informative and orderly meeting, we kindly request that you honor the following rules of conduct:

General

- The Company's bylaws describe requirements for meetings of its shareholders and the presiding officer will conduct the meeting consistent with those requirements.

- Only shareholders as of the close of business on July 15 ,2025, the record date, or their duly authorized proxies, are entitled to submit questions and vote at the Special Meeting. To vote or submit questions, please login as a Shareholder by entering the 16-digit control number you received with your proxy materials or voting instruction form. If you have voted your shares prior to the start of the Special Meeting, your vote has been received by the Company's inspector of elections and there is no need to vote those shares during the Special Meeting, unless you wish to revoke or change your vote.

- The only items of business to be addressed at the Special Meeting are as set forth in the Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders and Proxy Statement first made available to shareholders on or about July 21, 2025.

- Recording of the Special Meeting is prohibited.

- The presiding officer of the meeting has the authority necessary to preside over the meeting and may make any and all determinations with respect to the conduct of the Special Meeting and procedures to be followed during the Special Meeting.

- In the event of disorder, technical malfunction, or other significant problem that disrupts the meeting, the presiding officer may adjourn, recess or expedite the Special Meeting or take such other action that the presiding officer determines is appropriate in light of the circumstances. Accordingly, if you are planning to vote by casting a ballot electronically during the meeting, be prepared to vote as soon as the polls open.

Shareholder Questions

- The Company welcomes questions from its shareholders that are germane to the Special Meeting and the items presented. Shareholders who have logged into the meeting and have entered their voting control number may submit appropriate questions during the Special Meeting by typing the questions into the web portal at the meeting site.

- Only those questions that are appropriate for discussion at the Special Meeting will be addressed. The Company will only address questions in its discretion after the closing of the polls and the announcement of the preliminary results of the shareholder vote on the proposals to be presented, and the Company may not answer all such questions. Further, the Company does not intend to address any questions that are, among other things:

    - Irrelevant to the business of the Special Meeting;

- Related to material nonpublic information about the Company;
- Related to pending or threatened litigation;
- Related to personal grievances or derogatory references in bad taste;
- Substantially repetitious to statements previously made;
- In furtherance of the shareholder's personal or business interests;
- A matter of individual concern that is not a matter of interest to shareholders generally; or
- Out of order or otherwise not suitable for the conduct of the Special Meeting as determined by the presiding officer in their judgment.

- Any appropriate questions not addressed during the Special Meeting may, at the Company's sole discretion, be answered through direct communication with the shareholder who submitted the question.

THE FAILURE TO OBSERVE THESE RULES OF CONDUCT WILL BE A BASIS FOR REMOVAL FROM THE MEETING.

Thank you for your cooperation and continued support of the Company.
